

IBRAC's 23rd Annual International Seminar on Competition Defense

The largest competition law meeting in Latin America!

Grande Hotel, Campos do Jordão, São Paulo, Brasil

10.25.2017

This conference is noted for bringing together national and foreign authorities, members of academia, judges, attorneys, and economists to focus on the controversial topics involved in national and global antitrust activities. The debates held within this forum traditionally provide important input for legislative and procedural updating, which undoubtedly contributes to improving the Brazilian Competition Defense System.

Sheppard Mullin's Antitrust Group Co-Chair Mike Scarborough will be speaking on two panels:

- Arbitration and Competition
- Roundtable Discussion with Foreign Speakers
