

Water Rights Seminar

San Luis Obispo, CA
03.2009

Save the Date!

We will discuss how to protect your water supply and prepare your business for the emerging "water wars" in California.

- Brief history of water rights, from Pueblo Rights to newfangled Integrated Rights
- Water rights in California today (adjudications, State Water Resources Control Board)
- Agricultural rights in California (priority, risks, management)
- Adjudicating water rights (process, timing, results)
- Conjunctive uses (types, pilot projects, legal framework)
- New emerging California water wars (strain of fast population growth, protection of endangered species, historical and new ag use and diminishing water quality)

Presented by land use attorneys Ella Foley-Gannon, Geoff Willis and Doug Wance
