Tough economic times and a new administration in the White House are creating the perfect storm of challenges for employers. We will discuss the "must know" legal developments coming your way this year and provide practical strategies that companies can use to reduce the risk of litigation.

New FMLA Regulations

- Posting requirements
- Military leave changes
- Notice requirements
- Fitness-for-duty certifications
- Substitution of paid leave

Leaves of Absence Review

- Interaction of leave statutes with disability and workers compensation laws
- Updating leave of absence policies to maximize employer rights

Reductions in Force

- Federal WARN Act and Cal WARN
- Disparate impact analyses
- Best practices for separation agreements

Wage and Hour Update

- Class action developments
- Recouping wage overpayments
- Telecommuting and blackberries
- Off-the-clock claims

Employee Free Choice Act

- How this new legislation would effect all employers
- Steps for preparing your business for the worst

Preparing for a new wave of discrimination complaints

- Associational and retaliation complaints
- Keeping up with AB 1825 harassment and discrimination training

This will be a lively and entertaining seminar that should not be missed.
