

Webinar: Doing Business in China for Food Companies: An Insider's Update

via GlobalMeet

02.26.2020

Food law and regulation in China is rapidly developing to meet the needs of China's increasingly large, affluent and discerning consumers of food products. Smart food companies looking to enter or expand in China will benefit from expert legal advice on the ground to navigate the regulatory environment. Sign up now for this exciting webinar featuring China FDA experienced attorney, Edison Tang, Esq. Licensed to practice in China and based in his hometown of Shanghai, Mr. Tang will explain the latest legal developments and various legal strategies for food companies looking to grow their business in China. Professor Michael Roberts, Executive Director of UCLA Law School's Resnick Center for Food Law and Policy, will share insights on his food law work in China from the American perspective.

Sheppard Mullin partner, Christopher Van Gundy, a San Francisco based FDA expert, will moderate the panel.
