03.23.2020

With the Coronavirus (COVID-19) pandemic presenting new and complicated challenges every day, we know our clients are working hard to protect the health and safety of our community and their employees while focusing on the viability of their business and operations going forward. And while we deal with these demands, local, state, and federal governments are swiftly enacting new and complicated employment laws in response to this crisis.

On Monday at 2:00 (PDT), Adam Rosenthal and Ashley Hirano, employment lawyers at Sheppard Mullin, will lead another timely webinar discussing the recent developments and legal issues facing employers. These include:

- HR 6201- the newly enacted Families First Coronavirus Act
- Wage and hour compliance and compensation obligations
- Sick leave and other leaves of absence
- Layoffs, furloughs, RIFs and potential WARN issues
- Employee health and safety issues; among others
