The gaming industry continues to thrive despite the current economic climate. In fact, gaming is one of the fastest growing sectors in consumer entertainment as it continues its unprecedented expansion, both geographically and demographically, capturing the interest and engagement of new entrants across the globe.

Navigating this dynamic industry, both during the current pandemic and beyond, will take careful, strategic planning and execution. Sheppard Mullin's Esports and Games Team is hosting a virtual roundtable comprised of industry insiders who will share their knowledge on current trends and cutting-edge technologies, and provide unique, targeted perspectives on a post-COVID industry landscape.
