Cannabis Webinar Wednesday - Cannabis M&A in the Age of Corona

The worldwide COVID-19 pandemic has resulted in unprecedented volatility in the M&A space. The cannabis and hemp industries have not been spared. What impact has the pandemic had on M&A evaluation? What specific trends are emergent with regards to cannabis and hemp-related deals? What are the opportunities and risks for legacy and new investors? These questions and more will be answered in a webinar discussion with leading industry thought leaders, who will offer insights on where cannabis and hemp M&A has been, where it is currently, and, as best we can predict, where it is going in the age of COVID-19.
