Cyber threats to our healthcare industry are increasing. In 2020, U.S. hospitals and healthcare providers were the targets of unprecedented cyber-attacks. Hear directly from Special Agent Chris Christopherson of the FBI Cyber Division about recent and ongoing cyber threats impacting the healthcare industry, tactics/techniques/procedures used by cybercriminals, details about criminal enterprises, malicious cyber campaigns, and destructive malware. Cyber attorney Justine Phillips will also discuss plans and policies to mitigate the impact to your business and other best practices to manage risk. Vinay Bhupathy, a healthcare attorney with expertise in health information technology and healthcare privacy/security will moderate the panel. After the one hour presentation, attendees are invited to participate in a 30 minute live Q&A with the panelists.

Presented by
