

When Residual Interests May Be a Risk

ABA Virtual Securitization and Structured Finance Committee Spring Forward Special Event 2021
02.11.2021

When:

4:05 p.m. - 4:45 p.m. ET

Sheppard Mullin Panelist:

Liz Frohlich

About:

Recent litigation has highlighted certain risks relating to the ownership of residual interests in securitizations. In particular, the proper functioning of a transaction may be threatened if those residual interests fall into the wrong hands. Our panel discusses these risks and how they may be addressed and mitigated in documentation.

About the Event:

The Virtual Securitization and Structured Finance Committee Spring Forward Special Event 2021 is a series of virtual webinars in which securitization and structured finance practitioners will discuss the hot topics in our industry. Come to hear what the experts have to say and add your expert voice to the discussion. Spring Forward is a program of the Securitization and Structured Finance Committee of the ABA's Business Law Section

The Securitization and Structured Finance Committee keeps their members up-to-date on current legal and other developments in the Securitization and Structured Finance markets. The Committee writes comment letters and otherwise shape and advocate for regulatory and legislative changes, and act as thought-leaders to help lawyers understand, interpret and react to legal changes affecting the Structured Finance business. They also seek to help our members with networking and business development opportunities.
