

Moss Adams - 2022 Annual Health Care Conference

November 3 - 4, 2022

7AM - 6:30 PM

Our annual executive health care conference is back in-person—with the option to attend virtually at your convenience. Join us November 3 and 4 at the Red Rock Casino, Resort & Spa in Las Vegas to explore the most pressing issues facing health care as the industry recovers from the COVID-19 pandemic.

Health care executives—from providers, payors, disrupters, and industry thought-leaders—will converge to discuss the value of transforming health care through collaboration, innovation, and risk-taking.

The conference will address the current state of health care, including:

- Strategies for tackling difficult financial challenges
- Methods for operating in a post-pandemic market to leverage strategy, operations, and reimbursement tactics
- Exploring the future of value-based care and Medicare Advantage
- Behavioral health integration
- Keynote session with CMS administrators

New for 2022! Our inaugural Women's Health Care Executive Leadership Retreat will take place November 2 prior to the first day of the conference. This event features keynote presenter Dr. Bahby Banks, a featured panel discussion, roundtable workshops, and a networking reception. Space is limited.
