Please join us for this virtual presentation for an overview of ethical issues surrounding Artificial Intelligence (AI) impacting the legal and entertainment industries. Our expert panel will dive into many of the important questions surrounding the use of AI in the creative process. In addition, our panel will cover the ethical considerations lawyers must keep in mind when using AI in our respective practices. Examples of many of the AI tools currently available will be given, along with discussions of their benefits and risks to users. This presentation will be an excellent opportunity to learn more about AI, its impact on the entertainment industry, and its effect on our work processes as lawyers. 1 hour of ethics credit and 1.5 hours of MCLE credit total will be provided.
