Sheppard Mullin's Diversity & Inclusion Attorney Network is excited to announce its Latinx Legal Professionals panel, in celebration of National Hispanic & Latinx Heritage Month. This panel will feature prominent thought leaders, and talented legal professionals from the Latinx community.

Panelists will share their journey to their respective executive positions and reflect on the personal and professional experiences that have shaped their careers. You will gain insight into how their identities and communities have influenced their paths. Panelists will also share barriers overcome and advice based on lessons learned.

National Hispanic & Latinx Heritage Month, observed every September 15 through October 15, celebrates, honors, and uplifts the myriad of identities and achievements of those in the Hispanic and Latinx communities. From the multiple languages and dialects spoken, to the racial and cultural diversity, to the distinct histories of each region in Mexico, Central America, South America, the Caribbean, and other Spanish speaking countries this month, we honor them all.
