Author of "Happy Go Local: The Mom's Guide to Living the Good (and Sustainable) Life!"

Linsly Donnelly is a businesswoman, yogini, and writer. In her most recent job of "Mom," Linsly awoke to the importance of investing in your community and leaving a viable earth behind for future generations. She is the cofounder of an ecommerce business and a yoga studio. A transplant from her beloved Texas, she savors splitting her time near the water (Dana Point, CA) and in the mountains (Park City, UT). She fuels a few too many quests via a mocha addiction and the gleeful support of her valiant husband, their two high energy children and one very sleepy bulldog.

Attendees receive a free copy of Linsly's "Happy Go Local" book!
