Event Sponsor: America's Physician Groups and Moss Adams

The cost and market impact review (CMIR) regulations promulgated by the California Office of Health Care Affordability (OHCA) have been approved and apply to a large scope of transactions in the health care space. Find out if your 2024 transaction has to be reviewed by OHCA and what your timeframe and likelihood of review and approval will be. These regulations, in combination with the related statutory provisions in SB 184, set forth the framework for OHCA's authority to receive advance notice of and review a large scope of health care transactions in the coming months of 2024, reflecting a dramatic change to California's health care regulatory landscape. Don't miss this important webinar where our knowledgeable presenters will provide an overview of the key components and practical considerations regarding this new reporting regime.

Join our esteemed group of panelists as they discuss:

- Who is subject to the reporting requirement?
- How much will this cost?
- The submission process and what a good submission should look like
- What to expect from the review process
- What is the role and interaction with other possible agencies?
- What you need to know about confidentiality with respect to submissions
- How do you contemplate doing business in California given these developments?
