

2024 Antitrust in Healthcare

New Competition Theories in Life Sciences Mergers

The Ritz-Carlton, Pentagon City

06.05.2024 | 11:15 AM - 12:15 PM

Event Sponsor: American Bar Association

Recently, US merger enforcement agencies have challenged life sciences mergers using novel theories of harm. These include competition foreclosure by rebate bundling and acquisitions that stifle innovation. This panel will discuss these novel theories, their relevance in recent cases (e.g., Amgen/Horizon merger), and economic considerations and analyses to evaluate them.
