

The Business of Health Care

Lightning Round: Recap and Q&A

University of Miami

01.24.2025

The Miami Herbert Business School Business of Health Care Conference will convene preeminent U.S. industry leaders to assess a significantly shifting healthcare landscape under the incoming administration. The 14th annual conference hosted by the University of Miami Center for Health Management and Policy in the Miami Herbert Business School takes place Friday, Jan. 24 – just four days after the inauguration of the new administration. The in-person conference sessions, which will also be livestreamed, will offer a glimpse at how industry decisionmakers view potential changes for the U.S. healthcare industry.

Partner Adam Herbst will be speaking on the panel "Lightning Round: Recap and Q&A" on January 24.
