

Exclusive Breakfast Debate: Decipher the New Trump Administration and its Major Impacts

03.13.2025 | 8:30-11:00 AM GMT

On January 20, 2025, Donald Trump began his second term as President of the United States. The administration's first decisions in economic, regulatory and commercial matters will reshape the framework of transatlantic business and have a direct impact on French and European companies.

On March 13, 2025, the Cercle Montesquieu, in partnership with Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP, a leading law firm in the United States, invites you to a confidential strategic exchange with experts in the American market to decipher these developments and anticipate their consequences.

Why Participate?

- Analyze the Trump Administration's first decisions and their impact on your business
- Anticipate major regulatory and commercial developments: antitrust, cybersecurity, immigration, customs tariffs, enforcement, etc.
- Gain privileged access to insights from experts in U.S. law and transatlantic business

Speakers:

- Jonathan Meyer, based in Washington DC, former General Counsel of the Department of Homeland Security (2021-2024) and an expert on the workings of the US administration, will bring a unique perspective on the Trump Administration's priorities in terms of national security, enforcement and regulation.
- Valérie Demont, Corporate and M&A partner in New York, will accompany your reflection on the legal and strategic issues of investments and acquisitions in the United States in this new context.
- Malika Levarlet, special counsel in antitrust in Washington DC, will detail regulatory developments in the areas of competition, tariffs and foreign investment (CFIUS).
