

49th Annual UCLA Entertainment Symposium

With Reckless Disregard: The Evolution & Ethics of Defamation Claims in a Polarized Era

Los Angeles, CA

06.27.2025 | 2:00-2:55 PM

The Annual Entertainment Symposium is a flagship event for the entertainment industry, bringing leading lawyers, executives, agents, managers and producers, together with students for candid discussions on subjects at the forefront of the industry. Conversations during this conference have ranged from lively debate over the changing landscape of the entertainment business, to shared insights on planning for the success of original content in a vast digital landscape, and perspectives on filmmaking in newly developing markets. Panelists regularly include top entertainment lawyers and key executives from studios and production companies, along with leaders from digital and independent companies.

Partner Camille Vasquez will be speaking on the panel "With Reckless Disregard: The Evolution & Ethics of Defamation Claims in a Polarized Era" on June 27 from 2:00-2:55 PM.
