

AIEN US Regional Chapter Conference

Whatever Floats your Boat: Managing the Schedule in Renewable Energy Projects (Session 3)

Paramount Club, New York City

11.18.2025 | 11:30 AM - 12:30 PM

Event Sponsor: Association of International Energy Negotiator

Speakers will discuss the heightened risk profile for schedule delays in renewable energy projects, as well as the proactive contractual mechanisms and contractor management tools available to minimize costs when schedule delays or unforeseen events emerge. Panelists will also build upon the change in law discussions to address how contractors are managing supply chains in the face of uncertain tariff environment, and how contractors and project sponsors are collaborating to create contractual certainty.

Moderator:

- Chase Meyers, Managing Director - Construction Disputes, Kroll

Speakers:

- Jeffrey R. Escobar, Partner, Sheppard Mullin
- Andrew Bigioni, Commercial, Contracts & Corporate Legal Services, Hatch
- Thiam Giam, Senior Managing Director, Black & Veatch Management Consulting, LLC
- Alyssa Karotkin, Senior Manager Business Development, Strategy and Early Phase New Business & Investments, Equinor

Click here to register.

Attorneys

Jeffrey R. Escobar

Practice Areas

Energy, Infrastructure and Project Finance

Industries

Energy, Infrastructure and Project Finance