

How to Avoid Global Antitrust and Intellectual Property Risks

Beijing, China
09.04.2009

Sheppard Mullin partnered with China Society for WTO Studies to put on a training seminar in Beijing, China entitled "How to Avoid Global Antitrust and Intellectual Property Risks".

Sheppard Mullin presented on the following topics:

- Introduction of U.S. Anti-Monopoly Law and IP Law Structures
- Hot Legal Issues and Difficulties Chinese State-Owned Enterprises Face Concerning Anti-Monopoly Law and IP Law
- Typical Case Analysis
- How To Prevent and Deal With Overseas Anti-Monopoly and IP Disputes and Litigation
- Domestic IP Anti-Monopoly Legislative System and Strategy

Attorneys

Robert L. Magielnicki

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Competition