Please join us Thursday, March 10, 2011, for a complimentary program designed to foster a dialogue between enforcement and regulatory agencies and the financial institutions that they oversee. The program, which will address issues of interest to the legal and compliance departments of banks, broker-dealers, hedge funds, and insurance companies, will consist of three presentations:

- Panel I: "Criminal and Civil Securities Enforcement Priorities"
- "Government Intervention in the Financial Markets: TARP as Case Study," Honorable Neil M. Barofsky, Special Inspector General for the Troubled Asset Relief Program
- Panel II: "Financial Institution Compliance In a Borderless Economy"

Our panelists will include senior agency personnel and leaders from the financial industry, including:

- John Arvanitis, Chief, Financial Operations, U.S. Drug Enforcement Administration
- Kevin Cloherty, VP & Chief Counsel, Global Compliance, Manulife Financial Corporation
- Nicholas Colucci, Associate Director, FinCEN
- Christopher Garcia, Chief, Securities Fraud Unit, U.S. Attorney's Office, SDNY
- Martin Grant, Chief Compliance and Ethics Officer and SVP, Federal Reserve Bank of New York

- David Jaffe, Regional Chief Counsel, New York, FINRA
- Adam Kaufman, Chief, Investigations Division, Manhattan DA's Office
- Mark Keene, Assistant General Counsel, Bank of America
- Tim O'Neal Lorah, Managing Director and Global Head, Anti-Money Laundering Compliance Group, Morgan Stanley & Co.
- Jay McMahon, Chief, Business & Securities Fraud Unit, U.S. Attorney's Office, EDNY
- Arlene Semaya, Senior Vice President, Compliance Managing Director and Chief AML Officer, JP Morgan, US Investment Bank
