U.S. export controls and economic sanctions are changing all the time. Companies need to keep abreast of these changes to avoid compliance problems. Sheppard Mullin invites you to a lively lunch seminar hosted by our international trade partners Scott Maberry and Thad McBride. Scott and Thad will lead a discussion on emerging export and sanctions compliance issues, how to design and implement a compliance audit program, and how to decide whether to self-disclose violations. The discussion will include regulatory and practical considerations based on current cases and recent experience.
