

2012 Labor and Employment Year in Review

How the U.S. Presidential Election and the Current Economy Will Impact Labor and Employment Laws in 2013 and Beyond

Grand Hyatt New York
11.15.2012

Managing large and small workforces against the backdrop of a new presidential term and a challenging economy will continue to raise several areas of concern within management-side labor and employment circles. Please join our panel of experienced Sheppard Mullin labor attorneys for a discussion on recent labor and employment law developments and how the landscape may change following this year's U.S. presidential election.

Our program will feature informative discussions on a variety of topics, including:

- Leading court decisions and key legislative developments in 2012
- Key legislative initiatives for employers to monitor during the next presidential term
- Critical legal issues and recent developments affecting non-compete agreements and other restrictive covenants, including how to protect human capital and trade secrets and what to consider when hiring from competitors
- Recent NLRB rulings and initiatives targeting non-union employees

This 2.0 hour complimentary seminar will be presented by:

- Jonathan Stoler, Partner, Sheppard Mullin (New York office)
- Eric Raphan, Partner, Sheppard Mullin (New York office)
- Kevin Cloutier, Partner, Sheppard Mullin (Chicago office)
- James Hays, Partner, Sheppard Mullin (New York office)
