About 85 Broads

85 Broads is a global network of trailblazing women focused on inspiring, empowering and connecting women worldwide. The organization was founded in 1997 by women who worked for Goldman Sachs at 85 Broad Street, the investment banking firm's former NYC headquarters. Over the past decade, 85 Broads expanded its membership to include 38 Regional Chapters. Members include students as well as professionals to encourage women to take on fascinating careers and become leaders.

About Women Lawyers Group

Sheppard Mullin is committed to the advancement and retention of our women attorneys and strives to create an environment in which all of our women attorneys grow professionally, develop successful legal practices, and flourish as leaders both within our firm and in our communities. Individual office groups meet monthly and provide women attorneys with leadership opportunities and ongoing support. They also develop relevant activities and host special client and business development events. For more information on the Women Lawyers Group, please contact D&I@sheppardmullin.com.

Please note that space is limited and registration is on first come, first serve basis.
