

Land Use & Climate Change Conference

Millennium Biltmore Hotel Los Angeles
07.16.2008

On June 16 & 17, 2008 Sheppard Mullin's Robert Uram will be speaking at the Land Use & Climate Change Conference.

Who Should Attend

Attorneys, local governments, planners, engineers, consultants and developers

You Will Learn About

- Climate change science updates
- National and international governmental actions
- Lessons from early adoption of local climate change initiatives
- California's strategy for addressing climate change
- The interplay among California's statutory provisions, administrative rules, and administrative authorities
- CEQA documents
- The importance of water supply and quality
- Sustainable development and green building policies and ordinances

For more information or to register for this conference please click, <http://www.lawseminars.com/seminars/08LUCCCA.php>