The complexity of state and federal labor laws continues to present new challenges for employers. Join us to discuss how the latest developments affect the day-to-day decisions made by in-house counsel and human resource professionals. We will also discuss the current trends in employment litigation and how employers can protect themselves from liability. Topics will include:

Wage and Hour Developments

- Recent U.S. and California Supreme Court decisions and their impact on employers
- Reviewing white collar overtime exemptions in light of the upcoming proposed revisions from the DOL
- Latest trends in wage & hour class actions – what we're seeing and what's next
- Understanding and preventing claims for off-the-clock work

Leaves of Absence

- Developments in leave laws under FMLA/CFRA
- Navigating California's leave laws and their interaction with Federal leave laws
- Best practices for managing leaves of absence

Plus

- Developments in ADA/FEHA laws and their impact on employers
- Employment litigation updates regarding harassment, discrimination and retaliation
- Using arbitration agreements and class action waivers after Iskanian
- Guidance regarding the use of criminal background checks during the hiring process
- Strategies and best practices for social media and the mobile workforce
- Proposed new legislation for 2015

As always, this seminar will be informative, interactive, and engaging. We would be delighted if you joined us for cocktails and hors d'oeuvres after the presentation. Our attorneys will stay to answer your follow-up questions.

This seminar will be free of charge, so please make sure to forward this page to colleagues and contacts!

We look forward to seeing you at this informative, engaging and interactive seminar.
