Speaker:

Catherine A. Rogers

Professor of Law and Paul and Marjorie Price Faculty Scholar & Professor of Ethics, Regulation & The Rule of Law

Director, Institute for Ethics, Regulation & The Rule of Law, Queen Mary, University of London

Catherine A. Rogers is a scholar of international arbitration and professional ethics at Penn State Law, with a dual appointment as Professor of Ethics, Regulation, and the Rule of Law at Queen Mary, University of London, where she is also Co-Director of the Institute on Ethics and Regulation. Professor Rogers is a Reporter for the American Law Institute's Restatement of the U.S. Law (Third) of International Commercial Arbitration, one of the ICC Palestine's delegated members of the Court of Arbitration for the Jerusalem Arbitration Center, and co-chair, together with William W. "Rusty" Park, of the ICCA-Queen Mary Task Force on Third-Party Funding in International Arbitration. She is the president and founder of Arbitrator Intelligence, a non-profit entity aiming to increase transparency, fairness, and accountability in the arbitrator selection process. Her book, Ethics in International Arbitration, was recently published by Oxford University Press. The book comprehensively analyzes issues relating to the ethics and professional conduct of participants in international arbitration.
