Daily Journal has selected Ori Katz, leader of Sheppard Mullin's Finance and Bankruptcy practice group, among the 2022 Top Bankruptcy Lawyers in California.

Katz' profile celebrates his successful representation of Sizzler USA Restaurants throughout its temporary bankruptcy during COVID-19, of which he notes, "Using Subchapter 5 of the bankruptcy code, which was relatively new and untested at the time, we were in and out of bankruptcy in just over three months. The reorganized Sizzler that emerged was a much stronger entity."

In addition to his practice, Katz is highlighted as a regular speaker on matters related to bankruptcy and insolvency law. "I consider that kind of activity – speaking about the things that we're doing – to be really important in terms of giving back to the bankruptcy community, so I always say yes. I love to do it."
