

Moorari Shah Receives Edward A. Groobert Award for Legal Excellence

Equipment Leasing and Finance Association

05.09.2023

The Equipment Leasing and Finance Association (ELFA) has recognized Moorari Shah, financial services partner and leader of Sheppard Mullin's Consumer Finance Team, with the Edward A. Groobert Award for Legal Excellence. Shah was recognized for his critical role in promoting the equipment finance industry's policy objectives, as well as the analysis and guidance he has provided to the organization due to being leading authority on enhanced state financial disclosure requirements.

Each year ELFA, a trade association representing companies in the equipment finance sector, selects up to two recipients for its Edward A. Groobert Award, which is named for the organization's long-time Secretary and General Counsel Edward A. Groobert.

Click here to read the full announcement.

Attorneys

Moorari K. Shah

Practice Areas

Commercial Lending and Financial Transactions

Equipment Leasing

Industries

Consumer Finance

Financial Services