Sheppard Mullin has once again ranked among the top 100 law firms in Vault's 2024 Vault Law rankings – an annual list recognizing the nation's most prestigious law firms based on the assessments of lawyers at peer firms.

Notably, the firm earned top rankings for the Best Summer Associate Program (#8); Summer Associate Career Development (#10); Best Law Firm to Work For (#15); and Overall Diversity (#16).

Sheppard Mullin also ranked highly in the following practice areas: Renewable Energy (#10), Labor & Employment (#11) and Media, Entertainment and Sports (#13).

Vault's national rankings of the most prestigious law firms are based on assessments by lawyers at peer firms and feedback from more than 20,000 associates derived from Vault's Annual Associate Survey. The publication's influential rankings and reviews are regularly cited by leading news outlets and are considered a key guide for graduates entering the workforce and professionals considering a job or career change.
