

Pam Westhoff Recognized as a 2024 Commercial Real Estate Visionary by the Los Angeles Times

Los Angeles Times
05.20.2024

Pam Westhoff, a partner in Sheppard Mullin's Real Estate, Energy, Land Use and Environmental practice, was selected as a 2024 Commercial Real Estate Visionary by the Los Angeles Times for its Commercial Real Estate Trends, Updates & Visionaries magazine.

Westhoff was noted for facilitating a high-profile $963 million acquisition of a prominent 5th Avenue retail project in New York City and for negotiating a long-term lease for prime retail space on Rodeo Drive on behalf of an international luxury brand. The L.A. Times also highlighted Westhoff's handling of various public-private partnership transactions across the Western U.S

The fourth edition of this special publication spotlights professionals within the commercial real estate sector and features industry trends and updates. Those selected as 2024 visionaries were nominated by their colleagues and peers and selected by the L.A. Times B2B Publishing stakeholders for demonstrating leadership, an ability to impact change and overall success during the last 24 months.

Attorneys

Pamela L. Westhoff

Practice Areas

Real Estate, Energy, Land Use & Environmental