11.19.2024

Sheppard Mullin was named a 2024 Healthcare Real Estate Influencer by Globe St., recognized among the publication's list of companies and individuals that shape the healthcare real estate market and continue to drive its performance. This marks the firm's second recognition on this prestigious list.

Sheppard Mullin's core Healthcare Real Estate team, led by Los Angeles partner Tim Reimers and consisting of partner Scott Timpe, special counsel Kendra Leghart and associates Edward Musharbash, Chenxi Li and Amanda Lee and law clerk Kennedy Kline, supports some of the nation's leading hospital systems, including Providence St. Joseph Health—one of the top 10 largest nonprofit hospital systems in the country—and Signature Healthcare. Over the past year, the team represented University of California Regents in connection with several hospital acquisition transactions that will change the landscape of healthcare in California.
