Partner Jennifer Redmond Elected as a Fellow of the American College of Labor and Employment Lawyers

American College of Labor and Employment Lawyers

07.01.2025

Jennifer Redmond, a partner in Sheppard Mullin's Labor and Employment practice group, has been elected as a Fellow of the prestigious American College of Labor and Employment Lawyers. The College of Labor and Employment Lawyers is a free-standing organization recognizing those attorneys who have distinguished themselves as leaders in the field through long and outstanding service.

A seasoned trial lawyer, Redmond specializes in partnership disputes, negotiating and litigating restrictive covenants, trade secrets litigation, whistleblower litigation, class action litigation and more. She also serves as strategic counsel to employers on a variety of critical issues. Redmond is an active member of firm's Noncompete and Trade Secrets team and serves on the Executive Committee.

Redmond's induction will be celebrated at the Association's annual induction dinner on November 15, 2025, in Denver.
