Sheppard Mullin Partner and Business Trial Practice Group Co-Leader Sascha Henry and Partner and Private Wealth and Fiduciary Litigation Team Leader Adam Streisand have been named to the Los Angeles Business Journal's 2025 "Leaders of Influence: Litigators & Trial Attorneys." The annual list recognizes "the very best litigators and trial attorneys in the region" and "trusted advisors you want in your corner in court," according to the publication.

Henry was noted for her successes in defending companies against class actions and other sensitive and complex litigation across state, federal and appellate courts. As co-leader of the Sheppard Mullin's Business Trial practice group—the firm's largest and one of the fastest growing with over 250 attorneys. The practice continues to grow and thrive, and added 30 attorneys in 2024.

In his sixth appearance on this list, Streisand was selected for representing some of the world's wealthiest individuals and families in battles over inheritance, fiduciary conduct and business succession, including the trust wars over the LA Lakers, LA Clippers, LA Chargers and Baltimore Orioles. Notably, the Los Angeles Business Journal highlighted Streisand for representing media mogul Rupert Murdoch in an ongoing trust battle with three of his children.
