

Sheppard Mullin Selected as a Finalist for 2025 Texas Legal Awards

Texas Lawyer

08.04.2025

Texas Lawyer has selected Sheppard Mullin as a finalist for its 2025 Texas Legal Awards. The firm is among four finalists for “Intellectual Property Litigation Department of the Year” and Houston Office Managing Partner John Keville is one of seven finalists in the “Intellectual Property Attorney of the Year” category.

Each year, the prestigious Texas Legal Awards recognize “professional excellence in the legal community in assorted areas of the law,” according to the publication.

Winners will be announced during an awards dinner in Dallas on September 25.
