Gina Eskigian, special counsel in the firm's Entertainment Technology and Advertising practice group, was selected for Variety's 2025 Women's Impact Report. According to Variety, this prestigious list honors "the women who worked the best deals for clients and their companies... and oversaw the creation of blockbuster movies, series and music that captivated global audiences" over the past year.

Eskigian was recognized for closing a succession of headline-grabbing deals for Amazon MGM Studios in the last year, including Amy Pascal's first-look producing deal for the studio's upcoming James Bond film; Stacey Sher's producing deal for the feature "Verity," based on Colleen Hoover's bestselling novel; and Lizzo and Significant Productions' producer deals for "Rosetta," a feature film about gospel singer Sister Rosetta Tharpe.

Eskigian and all of the Women's Impact Report honorees will be celebrated during Variety's Power of Women dinner held in Los Angeles on October 29.
