

Lois Durant Named to City & State New York's 2025 Responsible 100

City & State New York

12.15.2025

Chief Diversity and Inclusion Officer Lois Durant was named among the 2025 “Responsible 100” by City & State New York. The annual list recognizes 100 individuals who exemplify social responsibility through community engagement and volunteerism, ethics and transparency, inclusion, philanthropy and charity.

Durant is responsible for leading the firm’s internal and external inclusion efforts and professional development programs. Durant was highlighted in the “Responsible 100” for both her work at the firm and her lifelong commitment to education, growth and understanding.

“I love turning values into measurable action, helping talented people realize their potential and ensuring that belonging and excellence reinforce each other,” said Durant. “What drives me most is creating an environment where people feel seen, supported and inspired to grow.”
