

Robert Darwell Recognized as Entertainment Attorney of the Year by California Lawyer Magazine

03.03.2006

Robert Darwell, Century City and New York-based Sheppard Mullin Entertainment, Media and Communications transactional chair, has been honored with a 2005 Attorneys of the Year (CLAY) Award in "Entertainment." Robert was recognized by the editors of California Lawyer magazine for leading the outside legal team that represented The Walt Disney Company in the highly publicized separation deal with Miramax Films creators Bob and Harvey Weinstein. Robert is profiled in the magazine's March issue spotlighting this year's CLAY awards.
