The Los Angeles Business Journal selected partner Adam Streisand as one of 2018's LA500, the publication's annual list of Los Angeles' most influential people. Known for litigation involving private wealth disputes, estates and conservatorships, Streisand was noted for securing a victory for former Microsoft chief executive Steve Ballmer against Donald Sterling, which led to Ballmer's $2 billion purchase of the Los Angeles Clippers and helped Los Angeles Lakers President Jeanie Buss fend off a threatened takeover of the NBA team. Among his other high profile cases mentioned were those involving the celebrity estates of Ray Charles, Marlon Brando, Michael Crichton and Esprit and North Face founder Douglas Tompkins.
