Shon Glusky, a partner in the firm's Corporate practice group and member of the to Esports & Games Industry Team, has been named to The National Law Journal's list of Sports/Entertainment Trailblazers. The list, published in a special October supplement, spotlights "a handful of individuals...that are truly agents of change."

Glusky's profile highlights his successes in the emerging area of esports. Glusky serves as outside counsel to Vindex, which is now one of the largest pure-play infrastructures in the esports industry. Within the last 12 months, Shon represented the company in raising $80 million in equity capital in a series A funding, and in its acquisition of esports production facility Next Generation Sports. He also advised Vindex in its acquisition of a former Activision team and the purchase of IP assets from video game and gaming merchandise realtor GAME.
