Sheppard Mullin's Robert J. Stumpf, Jr. Receives Robert Frandzel Award from Western Bankers Association

Western Bankers Association
10.14.2020

Robert (Bob) J. Stumpf, Jr., Of Counsel, today received the Robert Frandzel Award from the Western Bankers Association (WBA) at their virtual 2020 Bank Counsel Seminar. The award recognizes superior and noteworthy long-term legal assistance by an outside counsel to the banking industry and Stumpf was especially commended for his work with the WBA's Legal Affairs Committee.

"I'm very honored to receive this award and to be included among the list of distinguished past recipients," said Stumpf. "I have greatly enjoyed representing financial institutions for more than 40 years and hope that I have made at least a modest contribution."

Stumpf is also a Certified Specialist in Appellate Law and was recognized as the 2021 Lawyer of the Year – Appellate by Best Lawyers.

About Western Bankers Association

In 2018, two recognized, trusted associations, the California Bankers Association (CBA) and Western Independent Bankers (WIB) merged to form a strong new foundation, the Western Bankers Association (WBA). With more than 200 years of combined experience serving banks, the WBA is one of the largest banking trade associations and regional educational organizations in the United States. With a mission to educate and connect bankers to help them achieve the highest standards of personal and organizational excellence, the WBA offers dynamic conferences, training seminars, more than 250 webinars and enhanced education for member banks. CBA, the California state and federal advocacy division, is the advocate of the California banking industry for needed legislative, regulatory and legal changes. WBA also provides its members with preferred pricing for products and services that can both improve operations and save money through its Strategic Partner program.
