Amanda Cottrell, a partner in Sheppard Mullin's Business Trial practice group, has been elected as a Fellow of the prestigious American Bar Foundation (ABF). Cottrell was nominated by her peers in her area of practice and was elected by the ABF's Board of Directors. Membership is limited to one percent of lawyers licensed to practice in each jurisdiction.

Founded in 1952, the ABF is a non-profit organization and research institute for the empirical study of law in the United States. The Fellows of the ABF is a global honorary society of lawyers, judges, law faculty, and legal scholars who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in the profession and service to society.
