

Sheppard Mullin Corporate Team Represented SCLogic in Sale to iLobby

03.05.2025

The firm advised SCLogic, a leading logistics management software solution provider, in its acquisition by iLobby, a global leader in enterprise facility and visitor management software solutions and a portfolio company of Insight Partners. As part of the acquisition, iLobby has rebranded as FacilityOS.

For over two decades, SCLogic has been at the forefront of last-yard logistics, delivering innovative solutions that enhance operational efficiency, reliability and customer satisfaction. By integrating SCLogic's proven technology and expertise into the FacilityOS platform, the combined company is now positioned as the most comprehensive solution for facility management.

The team that represented SCLogic was led by partners Ed Xia and Larry Braun and associates Jay Lee and Megan Ricker. Specialist aspects of the deal were handled by partners Dmitriy Chelnitsky, Frank Dworak, Justin Hepworth and Carlo Van den Bosch, special counsel Elfin Noce, associates Brian Egan, Nirav Bhatt, Michael Thaxter and Michael Weissnar and attorney Michelle LaVoie Wisniewski. Additional valuable assistance was provided by associates Arthur Moore, Karen Shilyan, Shinduk Seo and Jeffrey Kozono.
