N. Adele Hogan has joined the New York office of Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP in the firm's Corporate practice group. Hogan joins from Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft in New York.

Hogan specializes in securities transactions, M&A transactions, restructurings/bankruptcies, corporate governance and general corporate matters. She has worked on over 200 deals totaling over $250 billion.

In the securities area, Hogan works for underwriters and issuers in a wide array of industries on offerings of diverse types of securities, including investment grade debt, IPOs of common stock, medium-term note programs, 144A offerings, debt tenders, and consent solicitations. In the M&A area, she has led public company tender offers, going-private transactions, spin-offs and private equity deals.

In the restructuring & bankruptcy area, Hogan has worked on bankruptcies in the airlines, automotive, chemicals, energy & utilities, financial institutions, gaming, hotels & leisure, real estate and retail industries. She regularly advises clients on SEC reporting, disclosure and corporate governance issues.

"Adele brings a wealth of experience in securities and M&A transactions, having worked with the largest investment banks on a variety of deals. She is an excellent addition to the Corporate practice group, especially as we continue to build our East Coast practice," said Tom Hopkins, co-chair of Sheppard Mullin's Corporate practice group.

"I am thrilled to join Sheppard Mullin. The strength and breadth of the firm's Corporate practice group is very impressive, as is Sheppard Mullin's successful growth and expansion in recent years," Hogan commented.

Hogan received her J.D. from Cornell University Law School in 1985 and a B.A. from Cornell University in 1982.
