Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP announced today it has entered into an agreement to work as a team with Saudi Arabia-based law firm Turkistani & Alabbad.

This new relationship enables Sheppard Mullin to work closely with a dynamic Saudi Arabian law firm to provide legal services to clients who have Saudi Arabia-related business. Turkistani & Alabbad specializes in complex litigation and arbitration, government contracts, and corporate transactions, including real estate franchising and licensing.

“Turkistani & Alabbad is a highly regarded full-service law firm in the Middle East with expertise that is important to our clients’ businesses, as well as our growing global footprint,” said Guy N. Halgren, chairman of Sheppard Mullin. “This close working relationship allows Sheppard Mullin to be able to serve our clients doing business or investing in Saudi Arabia and throughout the region.”

Mr. Turkistani, managing partner of Turkistani & Alabbad added, “We are very pleased to be working with Sheppard Mullin and its clients. We found the firm’s leadership and attorneys to be extremely talented, and they mirror our focus of delivering outstanding client service and results. Sheppard Mullin has offices located in key cities around the world, and their knowledge and expertise will be invaluable to our clients who are doing business internationally.”
