

Sheppard Mullin Advises MicroPact in Sale to Tyler Technologies

02.14.2019

Arlington Capital Partners announced on February 1 that Tyler Technologies, Inc. (NYSE:TYL) is acquiring its portfolio company MicroPact, Inc., a leading provider of specialized, vertically oriented case management and business process management (BPM) applications for government.

Sheppard Mullin served as counsel to Arlington Capital Partners and MicroPact. The deal team was led by Washington, D.C. partners Luca Salvi and Frank Bacelli, and included special counsel Michael Koltonyuk and Malika Levarlet, and associates Wes Fischer, Felicia Xu, Michael Baranovic, and paralegal Aaron Hill. Invaluable special assistance was provided by partners Carlo Van den Bosch, Keith Szeliga, Jonathan Meyer, Andre Cronthall, Keith Gercken, Anne Perry, Olivier Theard, Jim Ritter, and Bob Magielnicki; special counsel Verity Rees and Sean Kirby; and associates Andrew Alberg, Bryce Chadwick, Fatema Merchant, John Crisp, Katie Calogero and Heather Petrovich.

Click here to read the press release.

Attorneys

Frank A. Bacelli

Michael J. Baranovic

Katie A. Calogero

Andre J. Cronthall

James Wesley "Wes" Fischer

Keith R. Gercken

Sean J. Kirby

Michael Koltonyuk

Malika Levarlet

Robert L. Magielnicki

Fatema K. Merchant

Anne Bluth Perry

James F. Ritter

Lucantonio N. Salvi

Keith R. Szeliga

Carlo F. Van den Bosch