

Jarrett Reed Joins Sheppard Mullin In Dallas

07.22.2019

Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP is pleased to announce that Jarrett Reed has joined the firm's Real Estate, Land Use and Environmental practice group as a partner in the firm's Dallas office. Reed joins from Norton Rose Fulbright.

Since opening in April 2018, Sheppard Mullin's Dallas office has grown to nearly 30 attorneys. The office most recently added litigation partner Amanda Cottrell from Stanton LLP.

"We continue to add amazing talent in Dallas and we're thrilled to welcome Jarrett," said Jon Newby, Sheppard Mullin's vice chairman. "His experience and skillset dovetail nicely with our existing capabilities and he will further deepen our real estate presence in Dallas and beyond."

Keith Garner, leader of the firm's Real Estate, Land Use and Environmental practice, added, "Our industry-leading real estate, land use and environmental practice is booming. Jarrett's deep experience and nationwide practice will be a tremendous resource to clients firmwide. The addition of Jarrett to our outstanding group of real estate lawyers in Dallas highlights the firm's commitment to the expanding needs of our clients."

Reed represents investors, developers, managers and brokers in a wide range of complex real estate transactions, including acquisitions, dispositions, financings, restructurings, leasing, development and partnership, and joint ventures. Reed has negotiated leases demising hundreds of thousands of square feet of office, industrial and retail space nationwide. His clients include institutional investors and developers throughout various real estate product types, including healthcare, senior housing, multifamily, hospitality, retail, industrial, and office. Reed earned his J.D. from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law and his B.S. from Texas A&M University.

Sheppard Mullin has nearly 30 attorneys based in its Dallas office. The firm's Real Estate, Land Use and Environmental practice group includes 120 attorneys firmwide.
