Sheppard, Mullin, Richter & Hampton LLP is pleased to announce that Joel Bannister has joined the firm's Finance and Bankruptcy practice group as a partner in the firm's Dallas office. Bannister joins from McGuireWoods and he is the seventh attorney to join the Dallas office this year.

"We are strategically focused on expanding our capabilities in Dallas to better serve clients' needs and Joel joins us at an exciting time as we continue to grow this office," said Jon Newby, vice chairman of Sheppard Mullin. "His deep transactional experience and skill set will add immediate value to our team in Dallas and firmwide."

Brent Horstman, leader of the firm's Finance and Bankruptcy practice, added, "Joel's experience advising a diversified mix of financial and non-financial clients in a wide range of financings is both complementary and supplementary to our existing practice. In the current landscape, borrowers and lenders require highly skilled teams who can handle the most complex aspects of their transactions, and Joel is a key addition to our practice."

Bannister represents financial institutions and credit funds, as well as sponsors and borrowers in sponsor finance transactions, asset-based, cash flow-based and mezzanine lending, and complex intercreditor arrangements. He also advises clients regarding restructurings, workouts, distressed debt transactions, foreclosures, and other creditors' remedies.

With the addition of Bannister, Sheppard Mullin has 30 attorneys based in its Dallas office, which opened in April 2018. The firm's Finance and Bankruptcy practice group includes 65 attorneys firmwide.
