

Message from Chair Guy Halgren and the Sheppard Mullin Family

03.18.2020

This is a short but heartfelt note to tell you that you are on our minds here at Sheppard Mullin. All of us at the firm recognize that you and your loved ones are grappling with the COVID-19 pandemic, just as we are. Our thoughts are with everyone affected by the coronavirus outbreak.

As we continue to monitor the situation, our paramount concern is the health and wellbeing of our Sheppard Mullin Team, our clients, and our communities. Accordingly we have taken the following steps: (1) Instituted a mandatory work from home policy for all our attorneys and staff effective March 18, 2020, while maintaining a minimum number of staff in each office to ensure seamless operations; (2) Successfully conducted work from home tests on an office-by-office basis over the course of the last two weeks, enabling us to continue to serve you without interruption.

We have created a page on our website that discusses the legal implications of the Coronavirus and provides resources that you might find helpful: <https://www.sheppardmullin.com/coronavirus-insight>

From all of us here at Sheppard Mullin, we wish you the best of health as we navigate these challenging times -- together.

Sincerely,
Guy Halgren, Chair
