

Sheppard Mullin Advises Arlington Capital Partners in Acquisition of J&J Worldwide Services

07.08.2020

Sheppard Mullin represented Washington, DC-based private equity firm Arlington Capital Partners in its acquisition of J&J Worldwide Services, Inc. (J&J). J&J is a leading provider of mission-essential, preventative maintenance activities to critical U.S. Federal Government sites through its Healthcare and Medical Solutions, Mission Support Solutions and Engineering Solutions segments.

The multidisciplinary, cross-office deal team was led by partner Luca Salvi and included Michael Koltonyuk, Wes Fischer, Michael Ragan, Jim Ritter, Claudia Hinsch, Carlo Van den Bosch, Olivier Theard, Jonathan Meyer, Anne Perry, David Gallacher, Adam Bartolanzo, Nikole Snyder, Fatema Merchant, James Hays, Sean Kirby, Robert Gorzelany, Jarred Ramo, Michael Baranovic, Lee Weiss, Jordan Ehrlich, David Chidlaw, Christine Clements, Paul Werner, Imad Matini, Amanda Witt, Hannah Wigger, John Crisp, Andre Cronthall, Diandra Molina, Amy McEvoy, Candace Matson, Matthew McCalip, Jonathan Clark, Todd Padnos, Drew Svor, Keith Gercken, Robert Magielnicki, Malika Levarlet, Evan Hall, and Joel Bannister.

Click here to read the press release.

Attorneys

Joel Bannister

Michael J. Baranovic

David B. Chidlaw

Jonathan E. Clark

Christine M. Clements

John G. Crisp

Andre J. Cronthall

James Wesley "Wes" Fischer

Keith R. Gercken

Robert Gorzelany

James R. Hays

Claudia L. Hinsch

Sean J. Kirby

Michael Koltonyuk

Malika Levarlet

Imad S. Matini

Candace L. Matson

Matthew A. McCalip

Amy L. McEvoy

Fatema K. Merchant

Anne Bluth Perry

James F. Ritter

Lucantonio N. Salvi

Nikole Snyder

Douglas A. "Drew" Svor

Olivier F. Theard

Carlo F. Van den Bosch

Jason A. Weiss

Paul A. Werner

Hannah J. Wigger

Practice Areas

Corporate

Private Equity

Industries

Aerospace & Defense